The statue of Martin Luther King Jr. was unveiled outside a church in Compton.

Here's a photo of Bishop pictured with Supervisor Janice Hahn and many others at the unveiling of a statue of Rev. Martin Luther King Jr and County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn last week.

We are very proud of the beautiful work of Bishop Guillory of Ombudsman International, a close friend of Bulletin Displays (who even has an office at BD!). The statue commemorates the moment in 1961 when L.A County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn was the only elected official to meet the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. at the Los Angeles International Airport to welcome him to L.A. The statue was unveiled Wednesday outside a church in Compton.

Instead of the divisiveness of politics and race, we need to be reminded of the power of unification and tolerance. We can not hate someone and love them at the same time. Kenneth Hahn and MLK chose wisely and should be emulated. Read more:
